

Conway Christian School was represented at Palmetto Boys and Girls State by Benjamin Hutson, Ian Jackson, and Morgan Benton. Students selected by the American Legion must exhibit outstanding qualities of leadership, character, scholarship, loyalty, and service to their schools. Held in June in Columbia, S. C., these students had the opportunity to learn about government and how it works, develop leadership skills and participate in mock elections.

