How is Conway Christian School Funded?

Conway Christian School is primarily funded through the tuition paid by our families. But as costs rise, so does the cost of educating our young people. The actual cost of educating one student at Conway Christian is approximately $4,050 per year.

At Conway Christian School, we strive to make tuition AFFORDABLE for all without compromising the quality of our programs. CCS does not ask for or accept government funds; therefore we rely on gifts and contributions from our supporters. Since we are a 501c3 organization all gifts are tax deductible.
